IV. ADMINISTRATION

A. For Information

1. Social Media Policy

Co-Interim City Administrator Cross relayed the request of social media advisor, Andrew Smith, to terminate the remainder of his contract with the City.

Council Member McCune motioned to release Andrew Smith from the remaining contract for social media policy development. Council Member Taylor seconded the motion. A voice vote was taken with unanimous favorable support. Therefore, Chair Garritano declared the motion passed.

B. For Action

1. Meetings at City Hall – Conflict with Committee Meetings v HOA Meetings (Wards – All)

Co-Interim City Administrator Cross requested review of meeting room policy for instances of scheduling conflict between City meetings and resident use meetings.

Discussion included blocking dates for potential City use, remote livestreaming options and alcoholic beverage service.

Council Member Bertolino motioned to support a policy to avail City Hall meeting rooms to resident use if no City meeting is scheduled. Discussion concluded that this was current policy, so the motion was withdrawn.

Council Member Woerther requested of Economic Development Manager Jacquin a listing of alternative meeting spaces in the City.

V. Public Works

A. For Information

1. Meridian/Waste Connections Update

Co-Interim City Administrator Cross provided an update on the City's waste services concerns.

Discussion included actions taken in remedy of Meridian service complaints, best practices to assist residents and potential assistance from Waste Connections. A request was made for the Council Members to receive a copy of this day's email to the City from Meridian outlining their resolution plan for the remainder of their contract.

Chair Garritano motioned for a Resolution declaring to Meridian the City's disappointment in their inability to uphold their contractual service obligations and the impact to residents therein. Council Member Taylor seconded the motion. A voice vote was taken with unanimous favorable support. Therefore, Chair Garritano declared the motion passed.

B. For Action

1. Town Center Sanitary Sewer Update (Ward One)
