V. Chat Session for Task Force members

- a. What Should Be Our Top Priorities This Year?
- b. How Can We Make Our Task Force More Effective
- c. What Can Wildwood Residents Do to Address Erosion and How Do We Engage Them?

Co-Chairs Holthouse and Farmer led a discussion of the task force members, addressing each of the selected questions.

Discussion was held among task force members regarding the priorities of the task force; the consideration of pursuing an EPA-approved Watershed Management Plan; ongoing concerns regarding limited funding for the efforts of the task force; the consideration of retrofitting certain retention and detention basins in key locations; continued engagement with Senator Schatz; the pre-permitting effort that is currently underway for the four (4) identified locations; and the importance of the prioritizing the public education efforts of the task force.

VI. Wildwood Lawn and Garden Summit – March 19, 2022

Council Member Edens provided an overview of the planned Wildwood Lawn and Garden Summit Event. Ms. Edens listed the participating event partners that have committed at this stage in the planning process, provided details regarding their planned presentations for this free, outdoor event, and summarized other details planned for the day. Council Member Edens stated the Watershed Erosion Task Force will have a table and tent at the event, to present information to the attendees about the efforts of it and overall watershed and erosion issues in Wildwood. Ms. Edens concluded by requesting task force members consider volunteering for the group's tent at this upcoming event.

Discussion was held among task force members regarding the presentation of information at the Lawn and Garden Summit; the creation of a roll-up banner to be utilized for this purpose and one (1) possible design of such; and a general consensus the participation of the task force at this event would be a positive for the community.
