Re: Update on Expansion Area of Greensfelder Park and Wildwood's Equestrian Community (Ward Six)

City Council Members:

BACKGROUND >>> The Planning and Parks Committee recently heard a presentation from a group of Wildwood residents with equestrian interests about the potential use of Poërtner Park as a facility for their equine interests and related activities. The group had visited the park location with the Department of Planning and Parks, but were advised at that time about the Committee and City Council's roles and how each would have to review any proposal of this nature and make this type of decision. The first meeting between this group of residents and the Committee introduced the proposal to the members and allowed them to ask questions or provide comments about it.

The Committee Members expressed their understanding of the desire of this group to have a dedicated facility for these purposes and understood the important role equestrian properties and these interests have in Wildwood, but also wanted to ensure the deed restrictions that were placed on the property, as part its bequest to the City, would accommodate it, before taking the next step. The Committee Members requested the City Administrator and Department contact the City Attorney and seek an opinion. This contact was made, an analysis was undertaken by the City Attorney, to a determination made that equine-related activities on the site, and any improvements in association with the same, would be contrary to the deed restrictions and risk the City forfeiting the property. The Committee was advised of this situation at its March 2022 meeting.

As part of this discussion at the March meeting, the Planning and Parks Committee inquired if another location in the City could be considered. The Department of Planning and Parks noted that, recently, St. Louis County was a recipient of a 157 acre donation of land from a group of foundations and not-for-profit organizations, which abuts Greensfelder County Park and is served by Forby Road, all being located in the City of Wildwood. The Committee asked if this new area could offer opportunities for this equestrian group, similar to Gateway Off-Road Cyclists (GORC) and Bluff View Park. The Committee thought this property might present an option for consideration and were supportive of it.

FOLLOW-UP TO THIS MATTER >>> Per the request of the Committee, the Department of Planning and Parks contacted the St. Louis County Department of Parks and Recreation and explored the planned use of this new 157 acre addition to Greensfelder Park and was advised that equestrian facilities are already planned for it. The new parking lot that is to be constructed on Forby Road will be designed to accommodate trailers for equine, while two (2) new trail segments are to be constructed through the property to connect into the existing network of trails within the park, which are already used by equestrian purposes. Therefore, St. Louis County is anticipating the use of this area for these purposes. It is important to note that St. Louis County is not intending to restrict use of the new trails to one (1) type of user and will allow them to be open to all interests. Although the City could not itself find new opportunities for equestrian enthusiasts in Wildwood, an additional location is coming on-line shortly.

CONTACT INFORMATION >>> If any of the City Council Members should have any questions or comments regarding this information before tonight's meeting, please feel free to contact the Department of Planning and Parks at (636) 458-0440. This matter is on tonight's Work Session Agenda under the heading of "For Information," but can be discussed, if any City Council Member should request such of the Mayor. Thank you for the opportunity to present this information to the City Council.

Respectfully submitted,

CITY OF WILDWOOD
